Sept 2016

B. Timberg, Editor

President Sid's Message

I trust you have had a restful summer and are eagerly anticipating the 2016/2017 philatelic year. The year started for some of us when we attended the RPSC National Convention in late August. The Royal was as expected a spectacular event, with opportunities to hunt for and to purchase new treasures, to listen to informative speakers, to reconnect with fellow stamp enthusiasts, and to view and to appreciate many outstanding exhibits.

The following impressive research based exhibits are some that captured my attention.

- Expansion of the Post Office in Toronto, 1880 to 1899 (Silver, Garfield Portch)
- Canada's Barrel Handstamp Cancels (Gold, David Oberholtzer)
- The Imperial Airways Africa Route London to Capetown, 1925-1932 (Silver, Chris Edwards)
- Airmail to Canada's Gold Fields, 1924-1926 (Gold, Neil Hunter)
- Canadian Errors & Varieties During the Elizabethan Era (Vermeil, Doug McAndless)
- World War1 - Messages Home in Silk (Vermeil, Doreen Fitzgerald)
- In Defense of the Border - Canadian Military Mails, 1628-1885 (Court of Honour, David Hobden)
- The 1994 Great Britain Definitive Mini Sheet - A 20 Year History (Silver, David Gooderham)

The Exhibits such as the ones noted above not only preserve history but set the mark. They raise the bar by demonstrating commitment and excellence. As well they encourage us to learn more and to delve deeper in the hobby, encouraging us to bring order and to find the stories hiding or lost in our collections and accumulations stuck in the corners and stock books of our stamp rooms.

Last September I listed the following possible goals for you to consider.

- Go through your collection to build a detailed want list to fill specific holes or gaps
- Delve deeper into a definitive series by writing up what you have and know and want to learn
- Remount/mount parts of your collection by designing and utilizing your own pages
- Build your personal philatelic library and make better use of the Harry Sutherland Library at the Greene
- Assemble the components for a one page, multi-page or one frame exhibit, so that you will be ready by May to participate in the WTSC Annual Exhibition
- Join a new study group or philatelic society
- Seek a mentor or be a mentor

What will be your specific goals and plans for this year?

A Special Notice and Thank You

For those who are on the Machin email list, you will know that the Machin Study Group has run its course. Thank you to David Gooderham and Garfield Portch for their leadership, motivation and willingness to share research and knowledge. I am confident that the participants have valued your efforts and the many opportunities they had to learn about and appreciate the complexities of an interesting definitive issue.

The Learning Workshop

Starting on October 4, then on the first Tuesday evening of each month, a new series of get-togethers will offer an opportunity for club members to share their varied interests in our hobby.

The first 'Learning Workshop' -- titled "My Favorite Philatelic Thing (Stamp/Cover/etc.)" -- will be held in the library behind the auditorium.

Be it old or modern, the question is simple: Why did you pick it? Is it old or modern? Was it the beautiful engraving, its over-all appearance, the colour, the size, appealing artwork -- a combination of all of the above? Or ... Well, you get the idea. The most important factor is participation. Your session doesn't have to be long. And the more the merrier, as the old saying goes.

Whether the 'Learning Workshop' opens a door to influence expansion of your collecting interests, or will just be another good opportunity for fellowship, stamp collecting at all levels brings us together.

If you have any ideas for topics, please let me (Ian Robertson) know, either at a regular meeting, or on special green slips of paper available at the members' table in the auditorium. Even your own notepaper will work.

We look forward to hearing from you, and will welcome volunteers for future first Tuesday get-togethers. Come, enjoy, and share. Don't be shy!

Ian Robertson

Club Website

Our web site was totally redone over the summer by Garfield. It is now one of the best club websites in the country.

Members should check it frequently as updates will be the order of the day. By clicking on "WHAT'S NEW" in the top toolbar you will be able to view the dates and nature of changes.

Take a look at <http://www.westtorontostampclub.org/>

Garfield, thank you!

Submitting Lots for Auctions

Please Take Careful Note - At the most recent meeting of the Board, it was agreed that auction lots could be submitted until 6:55 p.m. after which time a strict cutoff curfew will be applied. Thank you for your cooperation and understanding.

Canadian Stamp News (CSN)

Did you know that club vice-president Ian Robertson writes an article (or two) every two weeks for CSN? If you've never read one of Ian's articles, find a recent copy of CSN, grab a tea or coffee (or maybe something stronger) and settle down in a comfortable chair and read. You won't be disappointed. Articles over the past month include "Postal history's many attractions include just plain fun" (August 23 - September 5) and "Hefty shipping fees discourage bidding" (September 6 - 19). The former article focuses on our club's June discussion group presentation by Garfield and Charles Verge.
